CHAIRMAN'S REPORTS: Mike presented a comparison of racing standards Searchmont / MACC / FIS, the chart is available on the web.

- Need to clarify the handling of protests in the rules – handle over the summer.
- We will have designated “naggers” to help get the races started on time this weekend.

TIMING & RESULTS: There will be a meeting for all timers and recorders Saturday morning at 8:30 in the Super Bowl warming house.

FINANCES: $3700 on hand, running to budget.

SPONSORSHIP / AWARDS: John will not be at Searchmont, will need someone to do announcing at awards, Cindy will bring the awards.

WORK ASSIGNMENTS: Karen distributed a list of missed assignments, get with your racers and advise Karen.

COURSE OPERATIONS: 5 protests at Searchmont – course officials word will prevail over any witnesses. At Seachmont Craig is the Jury.

REGIATRATION & BIBS: We have received a credit for the paper bibs that were ordered and not received.

BANQUET: Tickets will be available at the remaining races. Adults - $30, Child - $13, Infant (No Plate) - $0.

OLD BUSINESS: Cantor Cup planning committee – Steve Coatney, Foster Butler & Jim Geisling.

NEW BUSINESS:

- Howard Bowens prepared a paper addressing the timeliness of MACC races, the paper will be posted on the web.
- Unresolved protest from Searchmont – Mike Ulczynski hit a rock that surfaced after the first run on Sunday and lost a ski, Mike requested and was given a rerun, the rerun was disallowed by the Jury. The committee voted to uphold the Jury's decision.

The meeting was adjourned at 9:10 p.m. Next meeting Wednesday, March 6, 2002, 7:00 p.m. at the home of Cindy Ross in Royal Oak.

Respectfully submitted,

Brian Dusina
